

PETER JACKSON TAKES FIGHT

SAYS FITZ HAS A RIGHT TO RETIRE FROM THE RING.

Refuses to Give an Opinion of the Merits of the Men—Last Games in Western League and Western Association.

New York, Sept. 21.—Peter Jackson, when asked if he thought Fitzsimmons should fight Corbett again, said:

"Well, I don't know. If he has retired from the ring, as he says he has, I don't see how he can get him to meet Corbett again. I would like to see these two men fight again, and if they ever do I will try to get on a fight with the winner," replied Jackson.

"Do you believe in a fighter like Fitzsimmons retiring from the ring after he has won the championship of the world?" asked the reporter.

"Well, Fitzsimmons has as much right to retire from the ring as anyone else. When I challenged Jim Corbett twice in succession to fight me he said that he had retired from the ring, and while I have not seen him since, I believe he has retired. Fitzsimmons got the same privilege as Corbett has of declaring himself out of the business."

Jack said he was treated royally while he was in England by the sporting men over there, and he said he expected to return to this country. He cannot get on a fight in this country. He expects to leave for San Francisco in a few days.

San Francisco, Sept. 21.—Young Griffo, of Australia, and Joe Gans, colored, of Baltimore, met at the Olympic Club at 10 o'clock to-night in a fifteen round fight. Until the seventh round the bout was a draw, but the eighth round was won by Gans. The seventh was a hot one, during which both Griffo and Gans landed viciously at each other.

Matters became uninteresting again until the twelfth round, when Gans was again on the offensive, and there was a mix-up after another. The next three rounds were a draw, when time was called for the finish both men were standing on their feet.

New London, Conn., Sept. 21.—Martin Flaherty, of Lowell, was given a decision over George Siddons, of New Orleans, in a twenty round fight before the London Athletic Club to-night. The decision was on points. As the fight progressed, Flaherty was the stronger. The bout from start to finish was a hot one.

Flaherty landed often on the stomach, and after the third round, Siddons' stomach looked like raw beef. From the first to the fifth round, Flaherty was on the work. During the first fifteen rounds Siddons held his own, and in the sixteenth round he was knocked out by a knock-out. The last round was a fast one, but Flaherty's blows lacked strength.

A LITTLE SUFFERER

Face, Hands and Arms Covered With Scrofulous Humors—How a Cure Was Effected.

When five years old my little boy had scrofula on his face, hands and arms. It was worst on his chin, although the sores on his cheeks and hands were very bad. It appeared in the form of red pimples and then scab over. After disappearing they would break again. They caused intense itching and the little sufferer had to be watched continually to keep him from scratching the sores. We became greatly alarmed at his condition. My wife's mother had had scrofula and the only medicine which had helped her was Hood's Sarsaparilla. We decided to give it to our boy and we noted an improvement in his face very soon. After giving him four bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla the humor had all been driven out of his blood and it has never since returned."
